Monday 09.00am, January 27th 2014

The results of an extensive review and revised classification by Eric de Kaenel will form the basis of the one day workshop with a presentation of concepts, biostratigraphically useful taxa and microscope sessions to illustrate key forms. In association with The Micropalaeontological Society (TMS) and the International Nannoplankton Association (INA), this event is open to all nannofossil workers; academic, industrial and students.

The day will be broken up by refreshments sponsored by Network Stratigraphic and PetroStrat and a post-meeting meal will also be organised.
